MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 60

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge International will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge International is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

Band 1 (15–13 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good understanding of purpose. • Clear awareness of situation and audience. • Format entirely appropriate. • All required points developed in detail, fully amplified and well organised. • Given information well used to justify personal opinion and interpretation. • Tone and register entirely appropriate.
Band 2 (12–10 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An understanding of purpose. • An awareness of situation and audience. • Format appropriate. • All required points addressed but not always developed in detail. • Given information organised to support personal opinion. • Tone and register appropriate.
Band 3 (9–7 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some understanding of purpose. • Some awareness of situation and audience. • Format generally appropriate. • At least two required points addressed (and partially/fully developed). • Given information may not be logically used to support opinion. • Tone usually appropriate, although there may be slips of register.
Band 4 (6–4 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Only partial understanding of purpose. • Some confusion as to situation and audience. • Format may be inappropriate. • At least one of the required points addressed (and partially/fully developed). • Given information may be used irrelevantly. • Tone may be uneven.
Band 5 (3–1 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Misunderstanding of purpose. • Confusion as to situation and audience. • Little evidence of a specific format. • None of the required points addressed. • Given information misunderstood or irrelevant. • Tone may be inappropriate.
A mark of 0 should be given only when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the response is totally incomprehensible or • the candidate has merely copied out the question or parts of it at random or • the question is not attempted at all.

Question	Answer	Marks
SECTION 1 LANGUAGE MARK
Band 1 (15–14 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highly accurate, apart from very occasional slips. • Sentence structures varied for particular effects. • Verb forms largely correct and appropriate tenses consistently used. • Vocabulary wide and precise. • Punctuation accurate and helpful. • Spelling accurate, apart from very occasional slips. • Paragraphs have unity, are linked, and show evidence of planning.
Band 2 (13–12 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accurate; occasional errors are either slips or caused by ambition. • Sentence structures show some variation to create some natural fluency. • Occasional slips in verb forms or tense formation, but sequence consistent and clear throughout. • Vocabulary precise enough to convey intended shades of meaning. • Punctuation accurate and generally helpful. • Spelling nearly always accurate. • Paragraphs have unity, are usually linked, and show some evidence of planning.
Band 3 (11–10 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mostly accurate; errors from ambition do not mar clarity of communication. • Some variety of sentence structures, but tendency to repeat sentence types may produce monotonous effect. • Errors may occur in irregular verb forms, but control of tense sequence sufficient to sustain clear progression of events or ideas. • Simple vocabulary mainly correct; errors may occur with more ambitious words. • Punctuation generally accurate and sentence separation correctly marked, but errors may occur e.g. with direct speech. • Spelling of simple vocabulary accurate; some errors in more ambitious words. • Paragraphs may show some unity, although links may be absent or inappropriate.
Band 4 (9–8 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sufficiently accurate to communicate meaning, with patches of clear, accurate language. • Some variety of sentence length and structure, not always for particular purpose. • Errors in verb forms and tense consistency may cause uncertainty in sequence of events or disturb ease of communication. • Vocabulary usually adequate to convey intended meaning; idiom may be uncertain. • Punctuation used but not always helpful; occasional sentence separation errors. • Spelling of simple vocabulary accurate; errors in more difficult words. • Paragraphs used but may lack unity or coherence.
Band 5 (7–6 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overall meaning never in doubt, but errors sufficiently frequent and serious to hamper precision and distract reader from content. • Some simple structures accurate but unlikely to sustain accuracy for long. • Errors in verb forms and tenses will sometimes confuse sequence of events. • Vocabulary limited, either too simple or imperfectly understood; some idiomatic errors likely. • Simple punctuation usually accurate, but there may be frequent sentence separation errors. • Spelling of simple vocabulary accurate; frequent errors in more difficult words. • Paragraphs used haphazardly.

Question	Answer	Marks
	Band 6 (5–4 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Many serious errors of various kinds of ‘single-word’ type (i.e. they could be corrected without re-writing the sentence); communication established, although weight of error may cause some ‘blurring’. • Sentences probably simple and repetitive in structure. • Frequent errors in verb forms and haphazard changes of tense confuse meaning. • Vocabulary conveys meaning but likely to be simple and imprecise; significant idiomatic errors. • Spelling may be inconsistent. • Punctuation and paragraphing may be haphazard or non-existent.
	Band 7 (3–2 marks) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sense usually decipherable but some error will be ‘multiple’ (i.e. requiring the reader to re-read and re-organise); meaning may be partly hidden by density of linguistic error. • Unlikely to be more than a few accurate sentences, however simple, in the whole essay.
	Band 8 (1–0 mark) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scripts almost entirely or entirely impossible to recognise as pieces of English writing; whole sections make no sense at all. • Where occasional patches of relative clarity are evident, 1 mark should be given. • The mark of 0 is reserved for scripts that make no sense at all from beginning to end.

Question	Answer	Marks
Detailed Marking instructions for Section 2: Creative Writing
30 marks are allocated. The ‘best fit’ principle is applied, as in the following table. Note: Primary emphasis is on quality of Language ; comments on Content used to adjust mark within Band.
SECTION 2 MARK
Band 1 (30–27 marks)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highly accurate, apart from very occasional slips. • Sentence structure varied for particular effects. • Verb forms largely correct and appropriate tenses consistently used. • Vocabulary wide and precise. • Punctuation accurate and helpful. • Spelling accurate apart from very occasional slips. • Paragraphs have unity, are linked, and show evidence of planning. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Consistently relevant. Interest aroused and sustained. ➤ Tone and register entirely appropriate. ➤ Discursive essays are well developed, logical, even complex, in argument. ➤ Descriptive essays have well-developed images helping to create complex atmospheres. ➤ Narratives are complex, sophisticated, possibly tense, and may contain devices such as flashbacks.
Band 2 (26–23 marks)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accurate: occasional errors are either slips or caused by ambition. • Sentence structures show some variation to create some natural fluency. • Occasional slips in verb forms or tense formation but sequence consistent and clear throughout. • Vocabulary wide and precise enough to convey intended shades of meaning. • Punctuation accurate and generally helpful. • Spelling nearly always accurate. • Paragraphs have unity, are usually linked, and show some evidence of planning. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Relevant. Interest aroused and mostly sustained. ➤ Tone and register appropriate. ➤ Discursive essays have clearly-defined, cohesive, logical stages in their argument. ➤ Descriptive essays have interesting images and range of detail, helping to create effective atmospheres. ➤ Narratives have effective detail creating character or setting, and may contain some sense of climax.
